

Sharing Best Practice

Caring for People at Home who are approaching the End of their Lives - Interactive study day for Health Care Assistants

14 May 2019 Sue Ryder Hospice, Leckhampton

18 June 2019 Princess Alice Hospice

2 July 2019 Douglas Macmillan Hospice, Stoke On Trent

09.30 – 16.30

09.30	Arrival , registration and coffee
09.45	Opening remarks from NAHH Introductions to each other and the day- Setting the Agenda
10.15	Who are we and where are we from Participants “put” in mixed groups to share their different roles and patterns of working patterns
11.15	1. Caring for the person with These two scenario based sessions will focus on the specific individuals with a range of physical, social and psychological needs
12.00	LUNCH
13.15	2. Caring for the person with
14.30	Caring for the person with Dementia (this session will be provided on behalf of Alzheimer’s UK and offers participants opportunity to become dementia friends)
15.15	What next Opportunity to revisit person spec and consider skills required and set self-one “challenge”
16.00	Unfinished business – revisiting agenda Close